Exciting News!

We are thrilled to announce the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra will be performing a special musical performance for Families First's families and their children from all three preschools on February 21, 2020.

Please forward this and ask your guests to arrive and be seated at 12:30pm for light refreshments, a short presentation, and meet some musicians.
At 1:00pm families arrive and the concert begins shortly thereafter!

The theme of the concert is One Musical Family, which not only focuses on the instruments of the orchestra but also all the various careers both onstage and off that help bring the orchestra to life and inspire our families and their children through arts.

We would like to thank all of those who are making this dream come true! Thank you to all the CSO staff and musicians, Families First staff, many others behind the scenes, and to all of the families and children - this is for you - because you deserve the best!
